They will be back next year as we have another 8-12 loads to take out to empty our lagoons. The past four years we have averaged $11,220/year in sludge removal at the water plant.

-Another water service line leak was found to have been leaking for quite some time, the customer was not able to fix the line in the required time given, as they do not live there the water has been shut off until the repair can be made- this will help reduce our water loss.
